

Managed Detection & Response (MDR)

OVERVIEW

LinkShadow Managed Detection and Response (MDR), also known as Shadow Services, is a comprehensive security solution that leverages a team of expert analysts and threat hunters to provide 24/7 monitoring, rapid threat detection, and actionable insights-delivered as a managed service through the LinkShadow Platform-giving organizations complete visibility, advanced threat detection, and reporting without the need for a full in-house security operations team, while continuously strengthening network defenses and supporting business objectives

KEY FEATURES

24/7 Threat Monitoring

- Continuous, round-the-clock monitoring by security experts and threat hunters.
- Rapid detection and response to emerging threats to minimize risk and impact.

Expert Threat Hunting

- Proactive identification and investigation of advanced threats by seasoned analysts.
- Ensures threats are detected before they can cause significant harm.

Regular Security Assessments

- Ongoing evaluation of your security posture.
- Detailed reports, recommendations, and insights to drive continuous improvement.

KEY FEATURES

Actionable Security Insights

- Regular, easy-to-understand reports on security status and incident trends.
- Helps track progress and identify areas for

Consultation & Support

- Direct access to LinkShadow technology specialists for guidance and support at any time.
- Expert advice to optimize your security operations.

Operational Offloading

- Offloads the complexity and burden of managing security operations from your internal team.
- Allows your organization to focus on core business functions .

Cost-Effective SOC Alternative

- Affordable solution compared to building or outsourcing a full Security Operations Center (SOC).
- Delivers enterprise-grade protection without significant capital investment

Service Benefits

- Strengthened network defenses against sophisticated cyber adversaries.
- Faster detection and mitigation of threats through 24/7 monitoring and rapid response.
- Ongoing improvement of your security posture with regular assessments and expert recommendations.
- Reduced operational overhead, freeing your team to focus on business priorities.
- Access to a pool of experienced security professionals for continuous support and consultation.

Who Should Use LinkShadow MDR?

- Organizations seeking enterprise-level security without the cost and complexity of building an in-house SOC.
- Businesses that require continuous threat monitoring and expert-led incident response.
- Companies looking to enhance their security posture with regular assessments and insights.

Summary Table

Feature	Description
24/7 Threat Monitoring	Continuous monitoring and rapid response to threats
Expert Threat Hunting	Proactive identification of advanced threats
Security Assessments	Regular evaluations, reports, and recommendations
Actionable Insights	Security posture reports and improvement tracking
Consultation & Support	Access to LinkShadow security specialists
Operational Offloading	Reduces internal security management burden
Cost-Effective SOC Alternative	Affordable, enterprise-grade protection

Contact LinkShadow

For more information or to request a demo, contact LinkShadow's team of security experts.